

||Jai Shriram ||

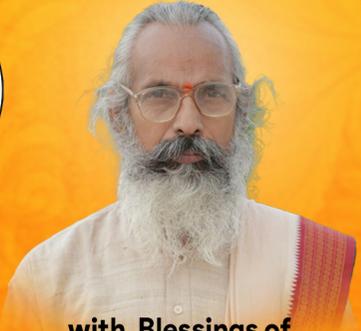

For the first time in the Akhanda Bharath, a grand collective Ugraratha Shanti (Shashtipurthi) festival is being held with 1008 pious couples reciting the Vedas and remembering the Lord Rama.

Reviving Ancient Traditions – The Sacred Bond Celebration

with Aspices of Padmabhushan
Sri Sri Sri Jagadguru Ramabhadracharya ji

with Blessings of
Dr. Annadanam Chidambara Shastri ji

This Grand Festival is organized to honor Sanatana Dharma and the sanctity of marital relationship, and to pass them on to the younger generation. The four-day spiritual-cultural festival is a special effort to revive our culture.

Organized by:

India International Institute for Ram Rajya Culture (IIRRC), Hyderabad.
in collaboration with the Department of Tourism & Culture, Government of Uttar Pradesh.

Key Highlights of the Mahotsav:

1. Sri Srinivasa Kalyanam – The Divine Matrimonial Ceremony
2. Ugrarath Shanti (Shashtipoorthy) – Sacred Completion Ceremony
3. Ayodhya Ram Darshan – A Revered Pilgrimage Experience
4. Special Puja at the Holy Banks of the Sarayu River
5. Classical Dance and Music Performances
6. Vedic Recitations, Shastric Homas, and Spiritual Discourses
7. All India Handicraft Mela and Self-Help Groups Exhibition

Date: , 02 - 05 December 2025

Venue: Ram Katha Park, near Lata Mangeshkar (Veena) X Roads,
Shri Ram Janmabhoomi, Ayodhya, Uttar Pradesh

Registration :

Mobile: +91 790 1400 333

Email: govindakalyanam7@gmail.com

Late date for registrations : 15.oct.2025

Registration closes on : 10.nov.2025

Your presence gives us the feeling of being touched by divine blessings.

Organized by:

India International Institute for Ram Rajya Culture Trust, Hyderabad